

The Aetna Tokeneke Classic Road Race

“CT State” and “New England Regional” Championships
August 13, 2017 – East Hartland, CT

Course Description: In 2017, again, racers will start on Rte 20 near Berg Field. It will be a neutral rollout as the field makes a left on 179 and proceeds south, in a clockwise direction around the reservoir, so that racers turn right at all the remaining intersections.

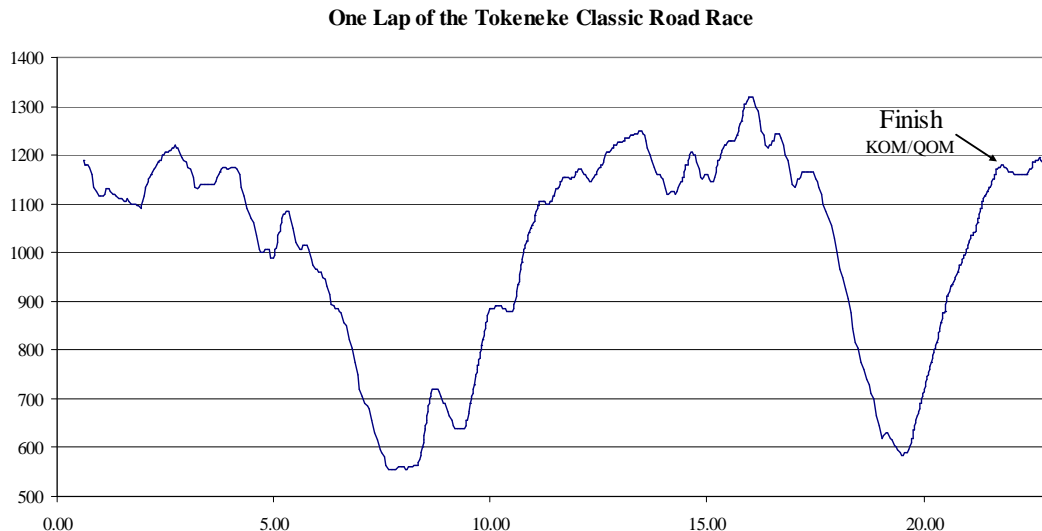

At Routes 179 and 219, (at about 4.3mi), racers bear right onto 219 South. At intersection of 219 and 318 (at about 6.9 mi), racers bear right onto 318 West and then go over the Saville Dam. Just past the dam (at about 7.7 mi), racers turn right onto Beach Rock Road. This is the first climb. At the corner of Beach Rock and 181 (at about 8.6 mi), racers turn right on Route 181. In West Hartland (at about 15.9 mi), racers go east on Route 20, completing a lap at the corner of Routes 20 and 179 in East Hartland. See www.tokenekeclassic.com for course maps.

Start Line will be in front of Berg Field parking area. We will run neutral until we reach the East Hartland Volunteer Firehouse on Rte 179.

Finish Line will be at the top of Rte. 20 / N Hollow Rd. (north from the start on Rte. 179 to the intersection with Rte. 20, then about ½ mile north on Rte. 20.

Feed Zone will be a few hundred meters before the finish line on Rte. 20 at N Hollow Rd. No feeding outside the Feed Zone. Neutral water will be supplied for 3-Lap+ afternoon races.
